

Enlightenment

2.1.3

Sponsored by:

*Department of History
The Center for Science,
Technology, Medicine, and Society (CSTMS)*

Division of Social Sciences

All sessions will be held in the Heyns Room, Men's Faculty Club

Friday, October 7

Coffee	9:30	Break	3:30
INTRODUCTORY REMARKS Carla Hesse and Massimo Mazzotti U.C. Berkeley, History	10:00	SESSION 3 Jacob Soll Rutgers University “Jacques Necker’s Compte Rendu (1781): Towards a Numerical Language of Political Accountability in Enlightenment Europe” Daniel Rosenberg University of Oregon “Data Before the Facts: Toward a Quantitative History” Chair: David Bates (U.C. Berkeley, Rhetoric)	3:45
SESSION 1 Keith Baker Stanford University “Condorcet and Marat: Two Trajectories from Newton to Revolution” Antoine Lilti École normale supérieure (ENS) “Beyond the Public Sphere: The Culture of Celebrity in the Eighteenth Century” Chair: Thomas Laqueur (U.C. Berkeley, History)	10:30
Buffet Lunch	12:30
SESSION 2 Thomas Ahnert University of Edinburgh “The Secularization of the Confessional State? Natural Law and Religious Intolerance in the Writings of Samuel Pufendorf” Dan Edelstein Stanford University “Enlightenment Rights Talk” Chair: Jane Shaw (Oxford; Dean of Grace Cathedral, San Francisco)	1:30
		Saturday, October 8
		Coffee	9:15
		SESSION 4 Theodore Porter U.C. Los Angeles “Quantity and Polity: Asylum Statistics and the Pursuit of Medical Evidence” John Tresch University of Pennsylvania “Enlightenment Rekindled: The Animal Series and the Birth of Socialism” Chair: Martin Jay (U.C. Berkeley, History)	9:30